a. On 17 January 1979 arrangements were made for electronic technician ads to run in the 5 February 1979 editions of The Army Times, The Navy Times, and The Air Force Times.

b. On 18 January 1979 [REDACTED] visited Commander J.G. Williams, Deputy Chief of the Telecommunications Section of the U.S. Coast Guard. This meeting was a follow-up to a lead provided by recruiter [REDACTED]. The U.S. Coast Guard has a news letter (COMBULLETIN) which carries news about communications only; it does not contain advertisements as such, but Commander Williams agreed to write a paragraph or two about CIA's Telecommunications and Electronic Technician requirements, and it will be suggested that interested persons who plan to separate from the service forward resumes to our P.O. Box address. The article will appear in the 26 February 1979 edition.
